You have responded with open and generous hearts for our Special Contribution for our International Mission Support. We have been communicating with the Missionaries and their families about your response and all are grateful.

We will be communicating to you all soon the plans and calling that we see for this offering. Please continue to pray for their efforts and for those on the Mission Committee at Northwest.

Grateful hearts are one of our responses to the Father that provide boundless grace.

Welcome!

Good morning and welcome to the NorthWest Church of Christ! We are so glad you have joined us this morning as we approach the throne of our God. If you are new to our church family, then please let us know as we would love to meet you and pray blessings over you and anyone else who has come here with you. We are thankful you have chosen to spend time with us and God this morning.

We are so glad you're here!

Mark's narration of the gospel culminates with the death and resurrection of Jesus. Other parts of Scripture tell us overtly the meaning and significance of these profound events. But the story itself, as Mark tells it, also reveals the meaning, if you read closely. Today we will read and consider the meaning of the crucifixion of Christ as reported by Mark. These events can and should affect us deeply and profoundly.
