

Psalms in Your Life

In the Bible, one of the books that deals exclusively with people reaching out to God is the book of Psalms. In particular, there is one Psalm which was taught to many of us when we were children – the 23rd Psalm. It wasn't intended for children when written, but the flow and soothing nature of the Psalm works for children as well as adults. When was the last time that you read it or verbalized it from memory? The next time that you feel the need to be lifted up by God try the 23rd Psalm.

1. The Lord is my Shepard, I lack nothing.
2. He makes me lie down in green pastures, he leads me beside still waters,
3. He refreshes my soul. He guides me along the right paths, for his name sake.
4. Even though I walk through the darkest valley, I will fear no evil, for you are with me, our rod and your staff, they comfort me.
5. You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies. You anoint my head with oil, my cup overflows.
6. Surely goodness and love will follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

A Note from Charlotte Dugan

Most of you know that my husband, Randy, passed away this last January. In order to help me manage (and to keep my oncologists and my health insurance CEO in business) we sold my house and my kids are building a smaller house for me. When I say they're building it, I mean that they are actually doing the work. My daughters, Amanda & Sarah, and my son-in-law, Grant along with a very small group of volunteers who have generously given their time, muscle and some truly expert advice. It's been a pretty tough eighteen months but blessings such as these have been continuous between the low points.

This is where you, Dear Ones, come in: I would like to have a House Blessing, with your help. My original plan was to have people come in person to write a blessing directly on the framing. Because of Covid and geographical distance, that plan has been modified.

You are requested to write a blessing paper, which we can attach to the framing of my house. I'm asking for a Bible verse, a prayer, a quote, a note, or whatever you feel moved to contribute. I've already received a couple of very sweet notes in the mail, simply handwritten on index card or paper. I don't ask or expect anything fancy. I'm inviting everyone to participate and I sincerely hope you will.

Please mail it to:

Angel Tree Is Ready

Our angels are here and ready to be chosen. Sign the red or green paper and leave it on the tree. Take the photo with you, which has the wish list on the back. Either wrap the gifts separately and circle what you bought or bring all the gifts in a large bag for us to wrap. If you are not attending services in person and would like to have an angel to buy for, call the church office and we will send you one.

Gifts are due back on December 6th.
