

Trust in God's Unfailing Love

The Psalm 13 ends in a positive crescendo:

But I trust in your unfailing love,
my heart rejoices in your salvation.

I will sing the LORD's praise,
for he has been good to me.

Encouraging words, but what went before? In earlier verses, David lamented that he feels forgotten by God. David wrestled with heavy thoughts, sorrow, and triumphs of enemies over him. He pleaded for answers. Do David's struggles sound familiar? They surely do for the NW family who lost a son and brother. And, these struggles feel like old friends to our family members suffering from COVID, isolation, unemployment, and other struggles with life in general.

So - trust in God's unfailing love, rejoice in his salvation, remember his goodness toward us, and praise Him. These are the best answers - but these answers are most satisfying after we have acknowledged our suffering to ourselves and cried out to God about them.
